

Robert Indrigo

Corporate operations manager

Robert's corporate experience has been gained across a number of industries and Environments. Robert enjoys the variety of his role working in Corporate services which includes Human Resources, ICT, Fleet and facilities and Reception Services. He has a strong interest in rural health and the skills shortage challenges for the region. He has also worked in medical administration, local government, legal and transport industries.

