

18 - 22 May 2009 is National Hepatitis C Week

To raise awareness of Hepatitis C transmission, support and treatment programs BCHS will be participating in and providing the following activities:

- Hep C information displays have been set up at our Eaglehawk, Central and Kangaroo Flat sites
- Hep C QUIZ's are being given to clients while they wait in our waiting areas
- A Myth Busting Hep C Stall will be set up in Hargreaves Mall Tuesday from 10am-3pm
- A tea and coffee morning tea for BCHS clients is being held in the reception areas at Eaglehawk and Kangaroo Flat on Thursday, and Central on Friday between 10am-12noon
- The annual C Jam concert will be held in the Y Stadium on Mundy Street from 1-6pm on Sunday 24 May 2009. Come along to hear some great local talent.
- Hep C information is being given out to NSP clients for the month of May
- Vivuids will be running a harm minimisation session for AOD clients on Wednesday 20 May (THIS SESSION IS BOOKED OUT)

This is a great week of events designed to promote the key message of how to prevent the transmission of Hep C.

Remember it is only spread through BLOOD TO BLOOD CONTACT.

Feel free to take the Hep C Quiz yourself at the link below.
