Better Health Medical Practice Community Health Nurse Casual positions

The Positions

Bendigo Community Health Services (BCHS) are seeking an experienced Community Health Nurse to work in our medical practice. There may also be the opportunity to work in other specialised nursing roles within BCHS dependent upon the successful candidate's skills. If you are interested in personal growth, professional development and want to be part of a dynamic team, this is the job for you.

We are seeking a highly motivated self-starter who can operate with minimum supervision and understands the role of nursing in the context of a medical practice. Previous experience in a similar role, Medicare claiming, and the use of Best Practice software would be advantageous. The role will also be involved in COVID-19 vaccination clinics that are operated at BCHS sites and other COVID-19 related activities as required.

BCHS offer attractive working conditions including Monday-Friday, business hours, generous salary packaging, professional and friendly team, and diverse working duties.

Current nursing registration with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) is required for this position along with the ability to provide vaccination status information that meets the requirements for healthcare workers.

For further information about the position call Graem Kelly, Executive Leader – Better Health on 03 5406 1200.

Applications addressing the Key Selection Criteria should be emailed to recruitment@bchs.com.au by 4.00pm on Friday 26th November 2021.

Bendigo Community Health Services encourages applications from individuals of all backgrounds and abilities.

Applications will be acknowledged upon receipt. Applicants are requested to contact Human Resources on 5406 1221 if an automatic acknowledgement has not been received.
