

Wellbeing, Inclusion & Independence
Refugee & Cultural Diversity
REFUGEE PROJECT WORKER
Casual role

The Position

The Refugee project engages with refugee communities to improve knowledge about COVID safe behaviors, vaccinations, build health, service literacy, safe living and assist to navigate the health system. The successful applicant will work directly with the local Dari community.

We are seeking a candidate who can read and speak Dari and English, has an interest in assisting the Karen community to understand their health and to assist in seeking the care they need. Experience in working with refugee communities (volunteer or paid) is preferred.

To successfully apply for this position you will need:

1. An ability to write, read and speak in English and Dari, language.
2. An interest to learn about project management, community needs analysis, program design and evaluation, and improving health and wellbeing.
3. Demonstrated communication skills and community engagement.
4. Ability to provide vaccination status information that meets the requirements for healthcare workers.

For further information about the position contact Kaye Graves on 54061235.

To view the position description please go to <https://www.bchs.com.au/careers/current-jobs>

Applications addressing the Key Selection Criteria should be emailed to recruitment@bchs.com.au by 4pm Sunday 9th October 2022.

Bendigo Community Health Services encourages applications from individuals of all backgrounds and abilities.

Applications will be acknowledged upon receipt. Applicants are requested to contact Human Resources on telephone 5406 1221 if an automatic acknowledgement has not been received.