Nova House

WELFARE WORKER

Part Time & Casual positions available

The Position

Bendigo Community Health Services are seeking motivated and passionate people to join our residential withdrawal team. This is an exciting time for drug and alcohol treatment services and BCHS is offering an opportunity to work in a dynamic, forward thinking and modern residential withdrawal unit.

The position provides welfare services to consumers who are undertaking alcohol and drug withdrawal within the adult residential withdrawal unit – Nova House and BCHS is looking to attract applicants who have previously delivered services to consumers through support roles in residential settings.

The position involves shift work – including days, evening, nights and weekends.

To successfully apply for this position you will need:

1. A Certificate, Diploma or Degree in Welfare, Community Development, Youth Work, Social Work, Counselling or other health science related field, which meets the registration requirements of the specific discipline in Victoria or demonstrated experience of a minimum of two years working in a related field.
2. A commitment to attaining the AOD minimum core competencies (if not already achieved) under your own undertaking within the first two years of employment.
3. Current First Aid and CPR Certification.
4. Ability to provide vaccination status information that meets the requirements for healthcare workers.
