

*Alcohol and Other Drugs (AOD) Clinical Services
Community Health Nurse (AOD)
Casual Bank*

Are you a compassionate registered nurse looking to work in a role where you can truly impact lives? BCHS is seeking a skilled Community Health Nurse to join our dedicated AOD Services team.

About the Role

Work across our Nova House residential withdrawal program and our Pharmacotherapy Clinic, supporting clients on their recovery journey. You will provide comprehensive care including assessments, withdrawal treatment, opiate replacement therapy support, and care coordination within a harm minimisation and recovery framework.

This is an opportunity to use your nursing expertise in a meaningful way - supporting people with complex needs through evidence-based, person-centred care in a supportive multidisciplinary team environment.

What We're Looking For

- Registered Nurse Division 1 with current AHPRA registration and at least 1-year relevant experience.
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills with diverse stakeholder groups
- Understanding of multidisciplinary team coordination and residential program operations.
- Commitment to quality outcomes and collaborative, client-focused care.
- Experience in AOD services or withdrawal/pharmacotherapy programs (desirable)
